Mericeau Jan'y 31 1864

Very Kind Sir,

Your favor of 29th inst

In Joshua Miller, is received, And the sum you were so good as to hand him, I have placed to your credit in ac. I have enclosed a summary of old and new acct. which shows a balance of $891.⁰⁰ in my favor.

As you ^{may} have no immediate use for the present year's interest, I should be glad to use $1000 of it until the 1st of November next, for which I will give my note, commencing 1st Jan'y, @ 6% ^{per annum}.

If this proposition is agreeable you will please advise me and then much of the matter can be arranged without further delay. And the balance of the bargain can be finished as soon as the state law admits of it. I shall be glad to know when it has been acted upon. All generally well.

Yours obt servt

Ben
